

CELEBRATE ALBERTA ARTS DAYS AT THE JUBE!

Calgary – The Southern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium is proud to participate in Alberta Arts Days. September 18 and 19 2009 the Jube opens its doors to the public for a fun-filled weekend applauding Alberta art. Admission is free and there is great programming for the entire family.

On Friday September 18, to kick off the celebration the Jube is devoting the day to the importance of art and education. We are partnering with The School of Alberta Ballet to create a magical performance and learning experience. The student dancers of The School of Alberta Ballet will perform on the Jube Main Stage to demonstrate the amazing light system. Program starts at 10:00 AM. Doors open at 9:30. Take advantage of being here, and enjoy our enormous art collection through a self-guided Art Walk. Please RSVP your school by emailing tarryn.koll@gov.ab.ca by end of day Wednesday, September 16 – we expect a full house, so please register early.

To continue with the Arts Days festivities on Saturday September 19 the Jube is excited to celebrate Calgary art in its many and varied forms. Ukrainian and Flamenco dancers, WP Puppet Theatre, Centre Stage Theatre, Kiwanis Music Festival musicians, artists from Calgary Opera's Emerging Artists program, and a Brazilian dance group called Axe Capoeira will be performing. There will be art demonstrations by artists from the Alberta Society of Artists. An Exhibit Hall will be hosted by University of Calgary, Mount Royal College, and Calgary Public Library. Program runs from 11:00 AM until 4:30 PM.
